If the shareholder's proposal is received before the meeting within time limits, which allow publishing the amended draft decision, the candidate names shall be included in the draft decision for repeated publishing.

b. Disclosing information on candidates for the members of the Council before the meeting and their presence in the meeting shall be considered to be a good practice providing the shareholders the opportunity to get acquainted with the candidate and his programme of the Council's activity.

c. In any case, the shareholders who nominate the Council member candidates are obliged to submit to the meeting a written consent of the candidate to be elected as a member of the Council in accordance with the Article 296 of the Commercial Law, information on the nominated candidate (in form of CV or another document), guarantees that this person has no legal obstacles to fulfil duties of the Council member and there is no interest conflicts, as well as information about the candidate's independence in compliance with the Corporate Governance Principles.

4.17.3 At approving of the annual report of the company.

a. Approval of the company's annual report and its subsequent transfer to the state institutions is a legal obligation of the Issuer. This legal obligation in the part of approval of the annual report shall be performed by the shareholders in the ordinary meeting of shareholders. The shareholders have to exercise their right to approve the annual report or to refuse to approve the annual report in good faith and constructively, without causing harm to the company.

b. The following is considered to be a fair and constructive practice in exercising of these shareholders' rights:

- exercising the rights to vote "against" only if the annual report is prepared with violations of Latvian and European Union laws, contains inaccuracies and material shortcomings, does not reflect the Issuer's state of affairs and other significant events and the shareholder has notified the Issuer about it prior to the meeting, but the Management Board has not eliminated these obstacles for the shareholder's vote;

- refusal to exercise the right to vote "against" for settlement of controversies and disputes among the shareholders and by protecting of their personal economic interests, without regard to the interests of the Issuer and / or majority of shareholders;

- using of other forms, methods and procedures for protection of the shareholders' rights or Issuer's interests, which do not cause obstructions in the Issuer's activity.

c. In deciding to approve the annual report, the shareholder is obliged to formulate principles and ways for resolving the situation:

- if the dispute with the Management Board and the Council concerns mistakes and/or discrepancies in the annual report stated in the meeting against the Issuer's actual state of affairs, the shareholders state the term for the Management Board for elimination of defects and convening of repeated shareholder's meeting for approval of the annual report;

- if the annual report in form and content is executed without violations of Latvian and European Union law and conforms to the Issuer's position, but the dispute between the shareholders, on the one hand, and the Issuer's Management Board, on the other hand, affects the performance of these institutions and the results obtained during the reporting period, the objections in respect of the annual report should not prevent implementation of lawful procedures relating to submission of the Issuer's report to state authorities, at the same time the shareholders have the right to request to convene an extraordinary meeting where the Council and the Management Board will give an account for their activity and fulfilment of the shareholders' decisions.

4.18. The shareholders' meeting is entitled to take decisions if the required quorum of the shareholders present in the meeting has been ensured in accordance with the Articles of the Issuer:

4.18.1. at the first meeting convened – there are participating shareholders who own a total of not less than 50% of the shares of the Issuer's equity capital with voting rights plus one share;
